To Whom It May Concern:

TV-London aired John Ironside's documentary "AIDS: Inside London Report" as part of a specially extended version of our current affairs program Inquiry. To the best of my knowledge this is the only time that a student production has aired on TV-London, and that is a direct reflection of the technical and editorial quality of the product. The producer did an exceptional job with student staff and non-professional equipment, achieving a solid result.

Mr. Ironside appeared as a guest on Inquiry and I was impressed with his maturity and demeanor.

I have no doubt that given better equipment and unencumbered by less talented student support staff, fully professional work will result. All-in-all, a winning combination of technical competence, above average intelligence and outstanding enthusiasm.

Yours truly,
